Service Tax Held Unconstitutional, Refunds Planned

Possibility of a special session of the Illinois Legislature was being studied by state officials today as a means of solving critical financial problems resulting from last week's Illinois Supreme Court decision holding the state service occupation tax unconstitutional. The ruling will mean a loss of about $70 million in state revenue this year.

A Cook county circuit court had held the tax unconstitutional in a suit filed by a Chicago photographer. The Illinois Supreme Court decision held the tax unconstitutional in a requirement that it violated a requirement that taxes be assessed uniformly.

The service tax applied to the sale of specially made machines, tool dies, jigs or similar equipment; selling graphic arts or related occupations; repairing, renovating or reconditioning of tangible personal property, and sale of drugs or medicines as a registered pharmacist or pharmacist on prescription.

Taxes collected under the law which became effective last summer have been held in escrow and will be returned to the retailers and, in turn, to the customer if he can produce a receipt. This is expected to result in a mountain of bookkeeping and confusion.

Refund of taxes paid by customers bears out a prediction made last Feb. 26 in the Granite City council meeting by Alderman Samuel Whitmer. Alderman Whitmer at that time advised persons paying the tax to keep receipts because the tax someday would be refunded. The tax amounted to 5%.

Local SIU-SW Student Captures Own Specimen

Vance Gasho, a student at the Southern campus of Illinois University, provided his own specimen for classroom study on Friday.

Gasho, 18, who lives at 1812 Market street, plans to become a veterinarian, and caught a muskrat Thursday afternoon near his home, using a fish net. The student checked with his professor, who agreed the seven-pound animal could be brought to class—caged. It will be studied before being turned loose near one of the campus lakes at a later date.

The muskrat lived in a sewer at Market street and Highland avenue and would sneak out of the catchbasin frequently to eat grass in a nearby yard.

Gasho laid in wait and netted the muskrat as it was coming out of the catchbasin. The Gasho family had an old rabbit cage and put the animal in it.

The student removed the manhole cover above the catchbasin after making his capture to make certain he wasn't "breaking up a family." The catchbasin was bone dry and empty, he reported.

Water Board to Study Cause of Fish Kill

Responsibility for a large fish kill in Horseshoe Lake several months ago will be considered Wednesday by the Illinois Sanitary Water Board in a regular meeting at Springfield. Clarence W. Klassen, technical secretary of the board, said today.

Documented results of investigations conducted by state technicians will be presented board members to determine if the fish kill resulted from the discharge into the lake by the Granite City Steel Co. of inadequately treated wastes.

Klassen told the Press-Record that the company has denied any responsibility for the fish kill and has filed statements with the water board. Roy Lockart, a district fishery biologist for the State Department of Conservation, reported that a loss of 21,872 fish valued at $867, occurred.

Paul A. Blakeslee, a sanitary engineer in the Illinois Department of Public Health, said that a survey of the lake at the time boys into the building. One young fellow was seen hitchhiking to the induction center. Alton Bay Month Early

All were on time, some arriving a half-hour before they were scheduled to report. One Alton area youth whose departure orders were dated April 29, arrived one month too early and was advised to report back on the correct date. The Selective Service official said the youth told her, "My mother must have read the date wrong."

James Holland, 2637 Cleveland blvd., commented, "I didn't get to bed until 4 a.m., but I guess I'm as ready as I'll ever be." He was among the earliest arrivals.

Roosevelt Muka, 19, of 712 Jackson street, Madison, who, until last week, was employed for 12 months in the Management Assistance Branch at Granite City Army Depot, remarked, "I can't say I want to go, but it seems like I am in, doesn't it?"

Two or three Granite Cityans were overheard debating whether or not Norb's drive-in on Washington avenue will go out of business, as many of the draftees were among its steadiest customers. Also in the group were two Mitchell youths, Randy Corey and Tom Talley, both of whom reside on English place, were graduated together in 1966 from Granite City high school and are good friends.

Albert Boyd, 19, of 51 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, former center on the Madison high school basketball squad, quietly revealed he was not going to a week ago when he was under consideration for an athletic scholarship at Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge. The youth, who has been working at Dow Chemical Co. since graduating last June, said wistfully, "Maybe I can still pick it up when I get out."

Holding a printed form, given him by draft board personnel, John B. Cass, 19, of 735 Rhoads street, Madison, told three former fellow-students at Madison high school, "You fellows are going to have to do what I say. They appointed me leader of the group." His statement was greeted with a few good-natured jeers.

Cass, who has a brother, Paul, 26, presently serving with the Army in Germany, remarked, "I'd sure like to get over to there with him."

Dennis P. Kelley, 19, of 2723 Harvey place, who was working at a punch-punch firm in St. Louis, said "I've been expecting to be called for quite a while, so it isn't a surprise."

He said he was looking forward to military service.

Good Bye Mustache

One youth, wearing a wind-breaker decorated with a Fort Polk insignia, explained he had a buddy stationed there, and another draftee took a little kidding on what was going to happen to his blonde curly locks and mustache when he arrived at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

center personnel, the youths were served coffee and donuts by Mrs. Lester Fehling and Mrs. Leonard R. Davis, volunteer workers from the Tri-City Red Cross chapter.

Each draftee was presented a blue denim "ditty bag," containing a comb, pen, notepad, razor blades, shaving cream, toothbrush, address book, key chain, soap and reading material. When handed a ditty bag, one youth commented, "Boy, this is like Christmas."

A public appeal for contributions to the "ditty bag" program was made in February by Mrs. Fehling, project chairman, who explained that expenses for the gift program are not included in the chapter's budget and donations are needed if it is to continue.

The small gifts are placed in the cloth bags, sewn by church groups and other volunteers, and given to the youths at the Edwardsville departure point. The project chairman noted that draftees from Alton and Edwardsville receive similar gifts, explaining, however, the project in those communities is handled by several contributing organizations.

Needs for Ditty Bags

"Some response has resulted from the appeal and what we received will enable us to continue the project for a little while longer," Mrs. Fehling said. She added that a $20 gift was sent by Mrs. Anna Gross of Indianapolis, Ind., a former long-time local resident and member of the local Red Cross board of directors, who read about the need for donations in a Press-Record article.

Selective Service officials said Friday that 27 local youths are to be drafted on April 12 and others are to report on the same day for pre-induction physical examinations.

Latest national statistics released to local boards disclose a total of 14,028,751 men have been drafted between 1960 and Jan. 1, 1968. Draft calls last year totaled 228,263, a decline from the 1966 figure when 382,000 men were inducted.

April 10 Hearings Set

Hearings have been scheduled in magistrate court April 10 for John Cass, 19, of 735 Rhoads street, Madison, and Stephen Bradford, 19, of 1701 Third street, Madison, following their arrest by Madison police on a charge of disobeying an officer. Police said the youths refused to leave the area of the Madison Recreation Center after they became involved in a fight.

Intruder at Picnic Shot by Policeman

An off-duty St. Louis policeman shot an intruder during a late night picnic at the low water dam near the old Chain of Rocks bridge, it was reported at 11:20 p.m. Friday.

The victim, Vincent Belmer, 20, of Riverview, Mo., was shot in the right arm, with a bullet that glanced off his chest. He was taken by a friend to the Florissant, Mo., Medical Center, and then transferred to St. Louis County Hospital where he was admitted with abrasions to the face and powder burns to the chest.

The officer is Arthur Dwyer, 21, who told Madison county deputies that he and seven others arrived at 9 p.m. and built a fire on a sand bar to cook wieners.

He said nine to 12 persons approached and started using threatening, abusive and vulgar language. Dwyer said he objected as girls were present, and when the group continued to advance, with bottles in their hands, he fired one shot into the air and two into the ground. When the shots were fired, the girls ran up a hill. No charges were filed against Dwyer as State's Atty. Gen. Scroggins considered the shooting to be in self defense.

At the hospital, Belmer told authorities that he had observed a number of cars in the area and that 200 to 300 persons were on hand. He said he saw a man with a pistol struggling with another man when the three shots were fired. He said he was standing about 10 feet away.

Mrs. Margaret Foley, 84, of Venice, Dies

Her husband, Fred Foley, died Feb. 5, 1950, and survivors include seven sons, Frank of Edwardsville, Fred Jr. of Springfield, William of Springfield, Thomas, Edwards and Howard of Venice and George Foley of Venice.

She is survived by Mrs. Norma (Edna) McNelly of Hamburg, Ill., and Mrs. L. Duncomb of Venice, a brother, William Thompson, 2640 Lincoln avenue, Madison, and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Three Granite City men and two women from Alton were apprehended by Granite City police at 2:15 a.m. Saturday, after a shooting on East 27th street and Namekoi road and were taken into custody by East Alton police in connection with a shooting there.

A sixth man, believed to have done the shooting, escaped. The victim was James Richard Larick, 24, of Wood River, who was shot in the right shoulder. He was taken to Wood River Township Hospital and then transferred to the intensive care unit at St. Elizabeth Hospital here for surgery.

Larick was riding in a taxi cab at the time, traveling south on Route 3. Police said the shooting followed an earlier argument at a tavern. A warrant charging aggravated battery was filed, but East Alton police refused to divulge the name of the defendant.

Granite City police found a 9mm automatic pistol with six shots in a clip under the rear seat of the car, a 22 caliber revolver in the glove compartment and a German hunting knife.

Auditions Set for SIU Summer Theater

Talented collegians from colleges and universities throughout the United States are eligible to audition for participation in Southern Illinois University's 1968 Summer Music Theater, which will open its 13th season June 9, according to William K. A full repertoire of four Broadway musicals is scheduled, including "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," "The Most Happy Fella," "West Side Story" and "Sweet Charity."

Singers, actors, dancers, technicians and orchestra personnel will be recruited for the 12-week production season. Those accepted will receive full-load graduate and undergraduate academic credit, Taylor said.

A substantial number of tuition scholarships and graduate assistantships will be available, as well as student-work positions.

Dependent Child Tax Guidelines New This Year

Divorced or separated parents planning to claim a child as a dependent on federal income tax returns should be sure to use the new guidelines now in effect, Jay G. Philpott, district director for central and southern Illinois, said today.

The guidelines were enacted by Congress last year and apply to 1967 returns now being filed. The guidelines cover situations where one parent has custody of the child and the other contributes to the child's support.

Philpott said these guidelines should help eliminate what has been a major cause of tax controversy.

Tax law permits only the taxpayer who provides more than half the support of another person to claim the dependency exemption. However, divorced or separated parents frequently claim the same child as dependent, Philpott said.

Based on Custody The new rules provide that the parent with custody of the child for the greater part of the year is generally entitled to the deduction.

There are, however, exceptions to this rule, depending on the terms of the decree and amount contributed to the child's support by the parent who does not have custody.

The new rules do not apply if someone other than the parents provide over half the child's support for the year.

The Internal Revenue Service has available, free of charge, Document 5013, "Personal Exemptions and Dependents," containing a copy of the new guidelines. These guidelines are also contained in "Your Federal Income Tax," the 100-page tax guide which sells for 50 cents.

Price Praises SIU Research

Research and pilot projects conducted by Southern Illinois University in the Madison-St. Clair county area have contributed substantially to passage of federal bills supporting social programs, according to Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis), who pointed out that many of SIU's projects are interlocked with city, state and federal programs and grants.

Cong. Price, speaking at a special university briefing in East St. Louis, had high praise for SIU community programs, and said he doesn't want them to go unnoticed. He endorsed a recommendation by SIU President Delyte Morris that the various endeavors sponsored by the Southwest and Carbondale campuses be compiled into book form.

President Morris proposed such a publication after hearing detailed reports from seven SIU officers heading major programs in the metropolitan area. Morris, who said he wanted to assume SIU's "total involvement" in the area, noted the programs have had a favorable impact on the public.

Cong. Price Guest at White House Dinner

Congressman and Mrs. Melvin Price of East St. Louis were guests at a White House dinner last week in honor of Liberian President and Mrs. William V. Tubman.

The dinner was in recognition of the long-standing relations between Liberia and the United States. President Tubman has held office since 1943. Liberia was founded in 1822 when a settlement was established in Monrovia, the nation's capital, with the assistance of Negro freedmen from the United States. "This example of nearly 150 years of cultural exchange with this African nation," Cong. Price said, "is something of which our country can be proud."

Illinois Power, CIPC To Combine Facilities

A stock exchange plan under which Illinois Power Co. and Central Illinois Public Service Co. will combine into one enterprise was announced Friday by officials of the two utilities.

Marshall S. Luthringer, president of CIPS at Springfield, Ill., and Allen Van Wyck, chairman of the board of Illinois Power, will offer to exchange 65 of a share of its common stock for each share of CIPS common stock.

The offer has been authorized by the board of directors of Illinois Power and the board of directors of CIPS has authorized the company to recommend acceptance of the offer to its common stockholders and to render assistance and cooperation necessary to complete the transaction.

The plan is subject to prior approvals of all state and federal regulatory authorities having jurisdiction, and is also contingent upon the meeting of all legal requirements and acceptance by holders of 80% of CIPS common stock. Preferred stock of CIPS will remain outstanding.

Luthringer and Van Wyck emphasized that CIPS would continue to operate as a separate corporate entity under its present board of directors augmented by Illinois Power representatives and with its existing executive officers and personnel. The Illinois Power board of directors also would be augmented by CIPS representatives.

Present personnel of both companies will be unaffected by the combination of the companies into one enterprise, the officials said.

GCHS Nine Opens Season Beating Roxana 10-2

The Granite City high school Warrior baseball team opened its 1988 campaign Friday afternoon by rolling over the Roxana shells 10-2 at the Roxana home diamond.

The Warriors, defending Southwestern Conference champions, were led by Walter Schmidt who drove home three runs. Gary Simpson, Roger Belshe and Bob Lewey were credited with driving in two runs each.

Warrior coach Joe Fedora said, "I'm surprised with the hitting at this time of year. We played better ball than I expected, but still we are just beginning. I just hope this isn't the last time that we are able to rifle 13 hits."

Don Rains and Charles Frizell shared pitching duties as Rains hurled the first four innings giving up three hits and striking out three, and Frizell pitched the last three innings yielding two hits and racking up six strikeouts.

The first two innings of the game were scoreless, but in the third the Warriors scored with two out when Belshe and Bob James walked and Schmidt doubled them home.

In the fourth inning, the Warriors exploded for five runs as Jeff Jones and Charles Fossick lead off with singles.

Rains was safe on first on an error leading the bases.

Bob Lewey doubled driving in two runs and Rains stayed on third base. Simpson hit a sacrifice fly scoring Rains. On a pass ball Lewey advanced to third and then scored on a single by Belshe. Bob James was safe on an error and Schmidt struck out. Mike Dochwat singled to drive in Belshe and the following man made an infield out.

The Warriors went on to get another run in the fifth and two in the seventh.

The shells scored their runs in the fifth inning. Belshe was three for four, James two for three, Schmidt two for four, Dochwat two for four, Lewey one for three and Dennis Huebner was one for one hitting a one run triple in the fifth inning.

Assumption, MHS Tie 6-6 In Baseball

MHS and Assumption high of East St. Louis played to a 6-6 tie there Friday afternoon. The game was switched to Madison due to wet grounds at Assumption.

The Trojans tied it 3-3 in the fourth when Dale Clinton reached base on an error, Bob Scott singled, Howard Harper walked, Doug DeRosier singled for two runs and John Ervin grounded to the shortstop, allowing Harper to score.

In the sixth, Madison tied it 5-5. It scored again in the seventh to take a temporary lead, only to see the visitors deadlock it again in the last half of the seventh.

The game was called at that point because of darkness. DeRosier, Mike Milovich and Don Bunk combined to allow four hits, Assumption and MHS each made four errors; the Trojans errors were all on throws.

Warrior Thinclads Top Bethalto in 1st Meet

The Granite City high school Warriors outdoor track team won its initial outing Thursday afternoon by beating Bethalto 73-54 on the local field.

Coach Jim Morrison said he was surprised at Bethalto showing. "They are a very balanced team and were much more powerful than we expected."

The fact that we haven't had too much time to practice outside could be seen, as our indoor facilities are far from being adequate. The boys run well in the track events, but we need a lot of improvement in our field events."

In this meet, the scoring was five points for first place, three for second and one for third. The Warriors scored twice in the two-mile run as Gary Oxford placed second in 11:13.9 and Ricky Rose was third with 11:19.2. ## Page, Benway Twin Twinbills Held, MHS Coaches

Two of the Madison high school varsity coaching vacancies for 1988-89 were filled at a special school board meeting Friday night. No other business was transacted.

Roger Page, who starred as a Madison high school athlete and on Eddie Hickey-coached basketball teams at St. Louis University, will be head basketball coach and a social studies teacher at Madison high school.

Page, a Louis Baer school fifth grade teacher, was assistant MHS basketball coach for seven years under Coach Glen McClanahan. John Logan was the 1967-68 head coach.

Roger Benway will remain a Louis Baer sixth grade teacher and serve as MHS tennis coach, replacing Mike Graville in the latter position. Benway has taught in the Madison district 14 years.

GCIS split into two squads Saturday to play doubleheaders at Wilson Park and the Coolidge junior high diamond. The Warriors won three of the four games, taking a pair from Quincy 6-0 and 2-1, and against Chester, winning 5-3 and losing 5-2.

Jim Parks pitched the opener against Chester and allowed only two hits, struck out eight and walked four. He was the first Warrior to pitch a complete game this young season.

Roy Logan's two hits included a two run triple in the second inning. The Warriors also scored twice in the first, once in the fourth and once in the sixth, totaling six hits and three errors.

The Warriors next turned to sophomore Larry Haddix, who gave up three hits, struck out four and walked four men in the 2-1 victory. GCIS scored in the third on an RBI single by Dennis Huebner. Chester tied it in the fifth and the Warriors went ahead to stay in the last of the fifth on an RBI hit by Roger Laws.

Ron Laws started against Quincy but in the second inning he injured his elbow throwing a curve ball. Sophomore Steve Harris relieved for the next four innings, allowing two hits and striking out four, and he was relieved by Charles Frizell, who gave up one hit and struck out two in the seventh. The Warriors scored one in the eighth.

In the second game Jim Gilmore walked two, hit one and gave up two hits in the first inning as Quincy took a 3-0 lead in the final.

Jeff Jones relieved and allowed three hits the remainder of the game, striking out eight players.

Belshe had two of the Warriors' hits. GCIS scored its two runs in the sixth and had men on first and second in the seventh when the game ended. The Warriors are now 4-1 for the year.

Horseshoe Throwing League Proposed by Park District in GC

Supt. Harold Brown of the Granite City park district has announced the possibility that the parks may offer a "new" sport to local residents this summer. It has been many years since the game of horseshoe has been a popular sport, but now an effort is being made to revive the game.

Brown asks that anyone interested in helping to form a league call the park district office at 877-3059. The league is to be for adults only.

The response will determine whether such a league can be formed. Any church or organization wishing information or wanting to enter the league is asked to call.

Years ago, it was quite an ordinary sight to see many people playing horseshoes on the park grounds, and in recent years there have been signs that interest has been building up again.

(Sp.)— "Soccer Offered" R. The YMCA Soccer Association has offered competition to local boys for the last seven years. Now, the league has grown to six divisions of players with an estimated 500 young athletes taking part in the program, and is planning to venture into another aspect of the sport—girls' soccer.

Teams are scheduled to be formed in the latter part of April.

Girls who play soccer here must be between the ages of eight and 13. Plans are to form three leagues and to have four teams in each league.

The girls will be divided into age groups of 8-10, 10-11 and 11-13. Each must become eight some time during this year and must not be 14 during the current year to qualify.

The association may change some of the rules by which the boys play, but this is still tentative.

Plans are that the girls will wear the same uniforms that the boys are wearing now, beginning when the boys' season is over. Insurance will cost each girl $2, which will cover them for one year.

Horseshoe Lake Races To Be Resumed Sunday

Pleasure boat racing fans will be happy to learn that Horseshoe Lake will be the site of seven racing programs this year. The first such 1968 race card in the state of Illinois is set for Sunday, April 7, starting at 1 p.m.

The races are to take place during the first part of each warm weather month, with the possibility also of a regional contest here if it is approved by the National Outboard Motor Association.

Each boat race program will have eight to nine events. These will offer competition for 50-cubic-inch engines, 70-80-cubic-inch engines, 80-90-cubic-inch engines, and unlimited one through unlimited six.

Conventional type hulls are designated as unlimited one, two and five, based on one, two or three engines.

Airlift or tunnel design hulls are designated as unlimited three, four and six (one, two or three engines).

Stock, Modified Engines

All of the unlimited categories have modified engines. Boats raced in specific cubic inch classifications use stock of the sport—girls' soccer.

Teams are scheduled to be formed in the latter part of April.

Girls who play soccer here must be between the ages of eight and 13. Plans are to form three leagues and to have four teams in each league.

The girls will be divided into age groups of 8-10, 10-11 and 11-13. Each must become eight some time during this year and must not be 14 during the current year to qualify.

VA Home Loan Program Shows Trend is Upward

Leaving forecasts and trend analyses to the economists, the Veterans Administration today reported the following facts concerning its multi-billion dollar GI home loan program.

February 1968 marked the 14th and 12th consecutive months in which the volume of appraisal requests, and loan applications, respectively, exceeded that of the same month a year earlier.

Appraisal requests on proposed and existing homes totaled 26,619 in February, up 25% from the 21,722 requests in February 1967, and 30% higher than the 20,488 requests in January 1968.

February applications for home loan guaranty totaled 15,578, or 38% above the same month a year ago, but five per cent below January 1968.

There were 4078 VA housing starts last month, compared with only 2900 in February of last year and 3340 in January 1968.

On a seasonally adjusted annual rate, proposed dwellings numbered 139,000 in February, or 32,000 more than in the same month the previous year, and 17,000 more than in January 1968.

Also on a seasonally adjusted annual rate, existing dwellings totaled 240,000 last month, up 19,000 from February 1967, and 38,000 higher than in the first month of 1968.

For proposed dwellings, the February 1968 seasonally adjusted annual rate was the highest since last October, while the existing dwellings rate topped every month since last July.

More than 84% of the loan applications received by VA in February were from Post-Korean and Vietnam era veterans.

All veterans, including world war II and Korean Conflict veterans still eligible for GI loans, are invited to visit their nearest VA office.

Draft Questions . . . And Answers

Answers to the most frequently asked questions concerning the draft are being answered by the Madison county selective service office, with the cooperation of the state headquarters staff at Springfield.

The county office is located at 132 N. 2nd Street in the new post office building at Edwardsville. Its telephone number is 1-468-3884.

The four series of questions and answers follows:

Q: In order to qualify for a I-I-S student deferment, must I enter college in the first class commencing after graduation from high school?

A: No. If you are not reached for induction on account of your age before you enter college, consideration will be given on the granting of a I-I-S deferment even if there was a period when you were not in school. Once you enroll in your undergraduate study program, you must file a request with your local board for a I-I-S deferment, be a full-time, satisfactory student and one who has not yet reached his 24th birthday.

Q: How might I, as an employer, obtain information concerning occupational deferments?

A: Information concerning I-I-A occupational deferments, including a free Selective Service pamphlet entitled, "Information For Employers," may be obtained from any local board of the Selective Service System.

Q: My draft board has issued two different cards to me and told me to carry them with me at all times. Why did they give me two cards?

A: The first card you received is your Registration Certificate (SSS Form 2). The other card is your Notice of Classification (Form 110) which tells you how your local board classified you. Both cards should always be in your possession. They must not be mutilated, altered, burned or destroyed.

Q: Does a registrant have the right of appeal to the President from an appeal board classification?

A: Yes. If one or more members of the appeal board dissented from such or that classification, the vote of the majority of the appeal board classified you is shown on the Notice of Classification mailed to you.

Q: I am a graduate student. Will I be eligible for a I-S(C) classification?

A: Any registrant who has been deferred as a student in Class I-S after July 1967 and has received his baccalaureate degree is not eligible for this classification.

Q: How might I, as an employer, obtain information concerning occupational deferments?

A: Information concerning I-I-A occupational deferments, including a free Selective Service pamphlet entitled, "Information For Employers," may be obtained from any local board of the Selective Service System.

List Social Security Number on Tax Return

Check your Social Security number before filing your income tax return. If this number is omitted, incomplete, or incorrect, your return will be held up, and if you are expecting a refund, the delay could be costly.

This word of warning was issued today by Jay G. Philpott, district director of Internal Revenue, to those taxpayers who have not yet filed income tax returns.

Recent figures show, Philpott said, that of the 420,000 returns filed so far this year by taxpayers in this district, 3331 have been delayed in processing because of an error in Social Security number. This error figure has increased greatly during the past two weeks.

The error, he continued, could be avoided by use of the pre-addressed label received by taxpayers in the income tax package mailed to them.

Philpott went on to say that mathematical errors have also increased greatly for this same period, which indicates that more care should be taken by taxpayers to check their figures before filing their returns.

Other common errors which are delaying processing of returns are missing signatures, missing documents (Forms W-2, statements or schedules) and use of the wrong tax table, line or column.

He also urged that taxpayers not wait until the last-minute rush to file their returns.

Kozikowskis to Help Host U. S. Puppeteers This Year

The St. Louis area will become the puppet capital of the United States for an entire week this summer, and the spotlight was on the Quad-Cities Saturday as plans for the Aug. 19-20 Puppeteers of America festival were reviewed at a St. Louis Puppet Guild meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kozikowski, 2339 Edwards street.

Kozikowski and his wife, Granite City PRESS-RECORD Page 10 Mon., Apr. 1, 1968

Juanita, whose puppets are known as the Kozipets, presented a modern day melodrama as a hand puppet show after the business meeting here Saturday afternoon.

The melodrama features a heroine, Little Nell, a hero, Jack Do Good, and a villain, Simon LaGreene. The setting of the action is a sawmill, and the climatic scene includes special visual effects created by the use of fluorescent paint and black light.

The Kozikowskis recently remodeled their basement to include a space, concealed by a picture, which serves as a puppet stage when the occasion calls for it.

Kozikowski designed and constructed the portable stage used for their shows. It is about seven feet high and four feet square, and the covering is a colorful stripe and polka dot cloth.

Original Material. Puppets They write their own material and create their own hand puppets to depict various characters called for in the plays. Most of their puppets have papier mache heads and cloth bodies.

Their puppets are not limited to the papier mache and cloth variety, however. They have novelty puppets, made out of a bleach bottle and aspirin bottle, which are used during Poison Prevention Week to tell children of the dangers of taking or drinking foreign substances.

They got into puppeteering about four years ago when they sent for puppets for their children, using a request form on the back of a cereal box.

The youngsters, David, Lisa and Joel, responded so enthusiastically that the parents decided to go farther into the hobby than merely an occasional show from behind their living room couch.

In addition to the antics of the puppets, Mrs. Kozikowski frequently includes "Mrs. Clown" as part of their program.

Schools, Churches, Hospitals. They have performed at the St. Louis zoo, stores, puppet carnivals of the St. Louis Puppet Guild, Christmas parties given by the Granite City Association for the Retarded, birthday parties, Illinois state fair talent shows at Springfield, the St. Louis Children's Hospital, churches, schools, organizations, Easter Seal nursery school children's groups and the 1967 Granite City Jaycees homecoming.

They believe firmly in the show business tradition that "the show must go on." As an example of this, Kozikowski broke an elbow while skating at the Granite City ice rink Nov. 11. His arm was placed in a cast, but he covered it with a green sling and was able to manipulate a Christmas dragon from a flap through the sling. Many who saw the holiday performance thought the sling was part of the act rather than an inconvenience.

They have been members of the Puppet Guild for three years and are currently serving their second terms as officers. He is vice-president and she is recording secretary. There are 22 puppet guilds in the U. S.

Kozikowski is to serve as stage manager for the 1968 national convention, which will be the 21st annual festival of the Puppeteers of America.

From Monday morning through Friday evening of the festival week at Webster College, an exciting series of programs, exhibits and workshops will provide entertainment and education for people interested in the art of puppetry. Those converging on the St. Louis area will come from practically every state and from some foreign countries as well.

The puppets, too, will come from home and abroad, and will reflect the use of puppetry in almost every facet of the past and present.

Daniel Llorca, president of the Puppeteers of America, has announced that some of the nation's leading puppeteers will be in attendance at the festival, including such famous names as Burr Tillstrom of "Kukla, Fran and Ollie" fame, Shari Lewis and Bill Baird. Baird, including such famous names as Burr Tillstrom of "Kukla, Fran and Ollie" fame, Shari Lewis and Bill Baird. Baird, including such famous names as Burr Tillstrom of "Kukla, Fran and Ollie" fame, Shari Lewis and Bill Baird.

plished puppeteer and international traveler, will embark on his third world tour with his "Concerttheatre" just hours after officiating and performing at the 1968 festival.

Plans are to have workshop sessions wherein the many aspects of puppetry will be shown and discussed. These will be designed with the teacher, therapist, hobbyist and professional in mind.

Topics will include puppet production, costume design, voice and manipulation, staging effects and related technical aspects.

The fun of being a puppeteer will be brought out in the sessions. A special session, set up as a panel discussion, will emphasize puppetry as true theatre art.

Plan Public performances. Two complete public performances will be given daily—one each afternoon and another in the evening. Moderate charges for these public performances will be made. Also, throughout the week, puppet films will be shown.

A special highlight of the festival will be the exhibit room where the festival committee will have set up a special international show of puppets. This will feature the artistic abilities of foreign puppeteers who, themselves, are members of the Pup-

$100 Smoke Damage Smoke damage was estimated at $100 at the apartment of Harold Schmidt, 2800 Madison avenue, where a pan was left on a burning stove at 9 a.m. Saturday, firemen reported.

And, as much as a part of the festivals as the Mississippi is to America, the puppet store will be in operation daily throughout the week. Operated by puppeteers, the store will be open to the public and will contain all sorts of puppets and puppetry-related items.

2000-Year History The history of puppetry can be traced as far back as 2000 years and it is almost certain that, even before history was recorded, these tiny figures were making mankind laugh and cry.

Puppetry in America enjoyed a tremendous rebirth shortly after world war I and interest has continued—perhaps because of the greater emphasis on leisure time and through greater use in the classroom and on television.

America boasts many outstanding professional puppeteers, and the Kozikowskis will be busy this year helping assure that their welcome to this area will be a warm one.

Depot to Provide Jobs For Alton Handicapped

The Granite City Army Depot has completed an agreement with Specialized Services Inc. of Alton to furnish necessary labor to wash administrative-type government vehicles at the depot.

Specialized Services, commonly known as the "Workshop for the Handicapped," employs about 150 young and old persons in three shops in Alton.

Several months ago, Col. Charles E. Hoskin III, depot commander, found through a survey that the Alton shops were particularly geared for the construction of wood pallets, and the depot placed a sizeable order with the organization. The arrangements were successful, he said.

REV. JACK MARTZ, pictured in Hong Kong. He will conduct services here for two weeks beginning April 7.

Evangelist Back From World Tour Due Here

Recently back from another world evangelism trip, the Jack Martz team will conduct a two-week crusade at the First Assembly of God, 24th street and Grand avenue, beginning April 7. Sunday evening services will be held at 6:30, and week night rallies will begin at 7:30. There will be no Saturday services.

Rev. Martz, an evangelist for more than 30 years, has had a ministry which has taken him across America many times and into nearly 50 countries in Asia, Africa, Europe and Australia. He also is a photographer, film director and producer.

Among the films which he has directed and produced are "Bak Fahn" (which in Cantonese means "Poison"), "Stars of the Morning" and "Chasing the Dragon." These films will be screened for the public during the crusade.

Accompanying Martz will be his wife, Esther, who sings alto in the Team Trio. ## Panel of Officials Tell Problems of Apathy

"Whirlpool of Apathy" was the program topic at the monthly meeting of the Granite City Area Council meeting Thursday evening at Mitchell school. Mrs. Pat Polley, president, presided at the meeting which opened with the PTA prayer given by Donald Kopp.

A panel of five men from different areas of employment spoke from their individual points of view.

Alderman Paul Rutledge, representing Mayor Partney, talked on civic apathy, and said there is a lack of interest by the people on important issues and no concern for the juvenile officer calls about their child is in trouble. Some parents will say, "We were wondering what to do about it. You for leaving school was because of academic difficulty. There should be a closer association with schools to try and solve the many problems."

The subject "Youth and Parental Apathy," was presented by James Reidelberger, chief probation officer for Madison county. He stated that 80% of all major crime in the country is by young adults 17 years or under. "Apathy is on the part of parents more than the young people. Crime is our country's number one problem. Juvenile crime is rated second in a major poll taken. There is a lack of parental concern when a juvenile officer calls about their child is in trouble. Some parents will say, "We were wondering what to do about it. You

$200,000 Suit Filed Over Plant Accident

A suit for $200,000 was filed last week in Madison county circuit court against Granite City Steel Co. and Mesta, Wilson & Foster Contractors for Dale Averick.

According to the complaint, Averick was employed as an iron worker for the H. W. Droege Erection Co., contracted to erect a roller addition at the industry, and on April 4, 1966, he slipped on a crane rail deck or narrow runway and was thrown to the ground, sustaining severe and permanent injuries.

The complaint alleges that fly ash had settled on the rail deck, causing it to be slippery. Negligence was charged.

Mental Health Day Care Center To Open April 22

A day care center for psychiatric adult patients of the Venice-Madison area will be opened on Monday, April 22, it was learned today from Sherman Sklar, Madison county coordinator of the Illinois Department of Mental Health.

Cooperating groups include Alton State Hospital, the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission, Quad-Cities Mental Health Center and St. Elizabeth Hospital. The project has been approved by the local Social Concerns Council.

The Lee Wright Homes recreation center, Klein and Bissell streets, Venice, will be the location of the day care program, which will be conducted from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each Monday. Additional days may be scheduled later.

It will be operated by professional staff members assigned from the sponsoring agencies, and volunteers of the community. The center also will be utilized by patients who can contact Sklar by telephoning 875-1204.

Orientation Next Week

First orientation session for volunteers is planned on Monday, April 8, with a second session on April 15.

If the pilot program proves successful it is planned to establish a second day care center.

With the staff and equipment to be donated by community and state organizations, there is a need for volunteers to be donated or loaned, Sklar noted.

Needs include a coffee urn; bats, softball and gloves; a kitchen; playground balls; badminton set; horseshoes; record player and records; crosscut, rip and coping saws; plywood hammer, screwdriver, chisels and wood drill; plaster molds and plaster of Paris; table games, such as "Scrabble" and "password"; sewing machine, needles, thread and material; cooking utensils; tablecloths and cleaning materials; paper mache; flower wire, tape and artificial leaves and cash contributions for arts and craft supplies and other equipment.

Emotional Problems

"The program will be aimed at those with a history of psychiatric illness and those with a potential in the future of referring agency, of developing an emotional breakdown," Sklar explained.

"It is designed to work with a maximum of 40 persons. We anticipate that about 50% will be Negro and about 75% of the 40 will be women. All will have a need of a structured activity program that will provide socialization as well as self-improvement activities."

"Initially, the bulk of the group will be people discharged from Alton State Hospital or people who have been or are being seen at the Quad-Cities Mental Health Center. We also expect to receive referrals from other community sources once the program becomes known."

Those working with Sklar in the planning have included Herman Shaw of Alton State Hospital and Barbara Van Wigen of the County Economic Opportunity Commission.

Group Psychotherapy

A typical day's schedule will consist of a group discussion from 9 a.m. to 9:30, active recreation period 9:30 to 10:15, refreshments 10:15 to 10:45, problem exploration through group psychotherapy 10:45 a.m. to noon, lunch noon to 1 p.m., self improvement 1 to 2:15, "break" 2:15 to 2:30, craft programs 2:30 to 3:30 and staff evaluation and treatment planning 3:30 to 4:30.

"Possible self-improvement activities are infinite and should be developed in accordance with the needs of the clients. A suggested list for presentation at the first meeting includes a charm group, job-seeking group, work toward General Education Development certificates, homemaking, family planning and social skills."

"In the craft programs we will attempt to achieve interpersonal interaction, a sense of achievement and some learning skills."

"We hope to use materials that they have access to at home so that there is a carry-over from the day care program to the home environment. This may be sewing, knitting and using common household objects to create things."

Skids Into Pole, Sign

A car driven by William M. Russell, 2400 Edison avenue, was damaged at the front and right side at 1:40 p.m. yesterday when it crashed into a sign and a pole at O'Fallon Service station, 12th and State street, Madison. Russell told police he was headed west on State street and that as he turned north onto State his car skidded on wet pavement and struck the sign post and pole.

Letters Helping to Cut Red Tape

By SEN. CHARLES PERCY

Four times a day the postman comes to my office in the New Senate Office Building. On each occasion he brings hundreds of cards and letters, in bags or neatly bundled together and tied with cord.

The people who send the letters write about all kinds of things. They may be asking me to vote one way or another on a bill. They may congratulate me for having taken a certain stand on an issue—or they may condemn me for it.

An increasing number of persons write out of deep anxiety over the state of national and world affairs.

Each week I tabulate the issues drawing the most mail to the office. Nearly always the top issue is Vietnam.

Whereas most people who wrote me supported U. S. involvement in a year ago, most persons are now opposed to our policies there.

Only infrequently will other issues concern letter-writers more than Vietnam. Before and after the six-day war, the crisis of the Middle East seemed to top position.

Last December, Social Security legislation was the top issue and, a few weeks earlier, the postal pay raise and cuts in government spending had been the most widely discussed issues of the moment.

Often the letter comes from a federal agency bearing word of a grant or loan or other aid which has been working on for an Illinois community. For instance, the Office of Education would recently that $687,137 had been approved for Illinois in behalf of handicapped children; as a result, many handicapped children who had never been helped previously will receive services. I was gratified.

Many times the letter-writer has a very real problem which he has been unable to solve—an aged person whose Social Security check has not arrived, distressed parents who have not heard from their son in Vietnam, persons who write about postal service.

We frequently receive calls from relatives about their sons and loved ones in Vietnam. These always receive highest priority and are the most heart-breaking sometimes.

A few weeks ago I received a letter from an inmate of a prison. He wrote:

"On behalf of myself and all inmates, I wish to thank you for your thoughtful actions in request for a law library . . . What you have indirectly done is reflected in the morale of the inmates. They hold their heads a little higher and hope a little more. Thank you again from the bottom of our hearts."

Much of my total staff effort is devoted to reading these letters and replying to them individually.

We answer each letter. In the last few months, our efficiency has improved so that a reply is on the way in a matter of days. Another large body of staff time is devoted to working on the problems on which the letter-writers ask help—"case-work" is the name we apply to this.

We want to help every citizen who finds himself frustrated or bogged down in a problem which our government has legitimate reason to appeal for aid.

With our growing state and nation, few people get to Washington and few people have a chance to confer directly with their elected representatives in Congress. So most must resort to the mails for their personal use of the democratic process.

We do the best we can within the limitations of our staff to serve the almost 11 million citizens of Illinois.

Engineers, Technicians in Demand

(U. S. Department of Labor)

Reports from 30 major manpower centers across the U. S. show a drastic need for trained scientists, technicians and engineers to maintain present levels of economic growth.

The current issue of the Labor Department's "Market for Engineers, Scientists, Technicians" says that the number of chemists, physicists, life scientists and mathematicians must be doubled by 1975—and the number of employed engineers must be increased by at least two-thirds.

Among these cities in the study showing drastic needs for scientific personnel are Boston, where area employers have expressed to add the engineers and scientists to keep pace with industry expansion, research and development growth; Philadelphia, where a strong demand exists for electrical electronic and mechanical engineers; Pittsburgh, where job listings outnumber applications by two to one.

Also, Detroit, where mechanical and industrial specialists are needed; Cincinnati, where a demand exists for all types of engineers; Chicago, where mechanical engineers are needed; Kansas City, where the greatest demand for engineers is in the mechanical field; Houston, where employers are seeking engineering graduates with on-the-job experience; and San Francisco, where most job openings are for senior level engineers with highly specialized experience.

Growing problems of urban and suburban housing, the publication stated, are seriously stepping up the demand for sanitary and safety engineers with degrees and experience directly applicable to public health programs.

State employment security agencies indicated in the report that most employers continued to offer preference to recent graduates of engineering schools over those who received their degrees several years ago.

Continuing expansion of medical facilities and services in 1967 was accompanied by ever-increasing needs for medical technologists and laboratory assistants, occupations in short supply throughout the country.

President Johnson's prime interest is in votes; instead of votes we need loans to rescue the people of this nation from the onrushing flood of financial crisis.

The Smith plant strike here is an example of organized labor's problems. Millions of dollars in pay were lost during the 86 days. This more than offsets the wage raise obtained.

Big business gets the prices of goods. When wages increase are granted, the cost of production goes up, forcing the consumer to pay more for the same amount of goods.

The low income group on Social Security retirement pensions suffers most. It is constantly racing on a treadmill, trying to exist.

Johnson and the Democratic administration are not the poor man's enemy. They are the enemy of the poor. They are strictly for the politicians.

The only solution to the problem may be to freeze wages and commodity prices, forget about the money, and quit trying to purchase peace from belligerent foreign nations with American taxpayers' money.

We should use these funds to bolster the economy and raise the American standard of living. This is the way our country can survive.

Anything else is speculating—gambling with the strength of

Airman Richardson Serving in Korea

Airman First Class Terry D. Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Richardson of 151 Voight place, is serving with an Aerospace Defense Command (ADC) contingent deployed to Korea. He supports the first F-106 Delta Dart fighter-interceptors using air-fight refueling that has flown to critical overseas areas along with tactical air units.

The 1400-mile-an-hour F-106s were sent from McChord AFB, Wash., to Ogan Air Base as part of the buildup of U. S. forces in Korea triggered by the North Korean crisis. The ADC all-weather interceptors used their newly-inaugurated technique of inflight refueling and were supported by Strategic Air Command KC-135 Stratotankers for the long over-water flight.

Airman Richardson, who flew to Korea aboard a giant Military Airlift Command C-141 Starlifter, is a jet aircraft mechanic. The airman is a graduate of Granite City high school.

County Supt. to Handle School Legal Questions

Requests for legal opinions regarding operation of public schools must be made to the office of Wilbur Trimpe, county superintendent of schools, and not to the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, according to a notice issued by Trimpe.

Trimpe said that lay persons with questions on the legality of school matters frequently ask legal opinions from the state office, although responsibility in such cases lies with the county superintendent.

He said that his office was notified earlier this week by Ray Papp, Illinois superintendent of public instruction, that the state office will alter its policy to discontinue giving legal opinions to lay persons. Page said state laws do not empower the state superintendent to give such opinions, but specifically states that the county superintendent shall be the legal adviser of school officers and when requested by any school officer, to give his opinion in writing upon any question arising under the school laws of the state.

Page noted that the county superintendent has jurisdiction over all the schools in his county and in the future the state office will advise individuals, other than school officers, to consult with the county superintendent concerning any legal problems relating to the public schools.

He said that if, after consulting with the county superintendent, a legal opinion still is deemed necessary, the question may be submitted to the legal department of the state superintendent's office by the county superintendent or other school officer, with the knowledge of the individual making the inquiry.

LARRY J. PIEPER

Larry Pieper Joins Funeral Home Here

Larry J. Pieper, older son of Mrs. Ann Pieper, owner of Pieper Funeral Home, 1920 Cleveland blvd., and the late Henry J. Pieper, recently became associated with the establishment, it was announced today.

Pieper was graduated March 22 from the Cincinnati College of Mortuary Science at Cincinnati, O., from where he received his diploma as an apprentice embalmer and funeral director. He also studied at the School of Mortuary Science, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale campus, between March 1966 and March 1967.

A January 1966 graduate of Granite City high school, Pieper earlier attended St. Joseph's parochial school and Prather junior high school. He is a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church and the Third Degree, Knights of Columbus, Tri-Cities Council 1068.

Pieper will serve a one-year apprenticeship prior to full certification. In addition to regular duties in the firm, he will serve as an emergency ambulance driver and assist the deputy coroner. While a student at SIU - Carbondale, the recent graduate became a registered Red Cross first aid instructor.

The Garden Corner

Spring Garden Notes

Spring is not an early this year as it might be. If it continues to be late, it means that you will have time to seed potato plants indoors. Assuming that the temperatures will be about average, it is now time to seed melons and cucumbers indoors. Use a peat pot or other container that can be planted directly in the field. Indoor seeding is especially important for starting seedless watermelons. This type of melon is weak-growing. Direct seeding outdoors is less reliable than starting them in more controlled conditions. Remember to include a standard variety for a pollinator for the seedless types.

It will soon be time to remove the winter mulch from your strawberry planting. The mulch can be left on until the plants begin to show signs of yellowing. This may not be for another week or so. Once they begin to discolor, pull off some of the mulch to allow air and light to reach the new leaves.

Winter injury is visible on various fruit plants this year. Purple raspberries appear to be killed to the ground. Many peach fruit buds have been killed. If your trees are going to bloom, they should now have buds the size of peas. Some injury has been observed to the wood of peaches and apples. Other symptoms may develop later in the season.

Nothing special is suggested for winter-injured plants except to prune off the dead shoots. Most plants will grow out of this type of injury.

Growing Potatoes
Potatoes grow best in a long, cool season, which is rarely found in southwestern Illinois. However, if recommended practices are followed, satisfactory yields can be obtained.

You should plant potatoes as early as the soil can be worked in the spring. Always use certified seed potatoes which are free of disease. Seed pieces should contain at least one eye and should weigh 1 1/2 ounces. Close spacing of 12 inches between plants and 30 inches between rows is suggested for early potatoes. This will provide more foliage to shade the soil and prevent excessively high soil temperatures during tuber development. Straw or mulching potatoes is the other way to provide cool soil temperatures for

Local Coeds to Attend AFROT Convention

Janice Veizer, 1817 Pontoon road, and Sheila Obranovich, 1810 Second street, Madison, will be among Southern Illinois University Angel Flight members who will stage a "first" at the Arnold Air Society national convalesce April 7-10 in New York City.

Miss Veizer is a singer and Miss Obranovich is a dancer. There are 115 Angel Flight units associated with Air Force ROTC programs at American colleges and universities, and this is the first time any Angel group has been asked to perform at the national convalesce. The singers are known as the Angelaires, and the dancers are called the Angelettes.

GOODBYE FOREVER!

I bought myself an electric range with a self-cleaning oven

Smart gal! She quit spending hours scouring a dirty, greasy oven. Now, she cleans her oven automatically with electricity.

Electric oven cleaning is as simple as one, two, three: 1) Just latch the self-locking door, 2) Set a dial, 3) Take off and enjoy yourself. Electricity will clean all the oven surfaces, the racks, drip pots and pans. Everything inside a self-cleaning oven will sparkle like new.

The electricity used to clean an oven costs less than ten cents. That's really peanuts compared to the thirty-five cents normally spent for cleaning compounds and scouring pads. . . not to mention the two hour investment you make cleaning an oven by hand.

You can get modern electric cleaning power only in the new electric ranges. See your appliance dealer now and get rid of oven cleaning chores forever.

This sleek, modern "clean" 1500th year as a star, is available at your Illinois Power office. It's free. Just ask.
